SIR,

I have the honour to invite your kind attention to my letter C.No.107 dated 10th December last, and beg to know whether any communications have been received from the British Government regarding the loan of the services of two Forest Officers from the Central Provinces. If none has been received, may I suggest that the Hon'ble the Resident be reminded in the matter, as serious inconvenience is felt owing to paucity of Officers.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Conservator of Forests.
